

Tour to Pobitora National Sanctuary

The Department of Economics organized a trip for its honours students to visit Pobitora National Sanctuary on 1st August, 2019. The Pobitora National Sanctuary which is situated at the western part of Morigaon District of Central Assam attracts the tourists of all over the entire world for its natural beauty, one horned rhinos and various species of birds. Md. Sharif Uddin, senior faculty of Economics guided the students in the trip. The trip truly benefitted the students. More than 10 students participated and made the program a successful one.

