

Faculty Exchange

By doing faculty exchange every faculty gets exposure of different culture, study environment and learns cross culture management which is very important in this era of globalization. The Charaibahi College and Nowgong Girls' College entered into the MoU (Memorandum of Understanding) in 2019 and accordingly the Department of Economics took the advantage of exchanging faculties between the two.

